Sound : In the 1920s, the development of electronic sound recording technologies made it practical to incorporate a soundtrack of speech, music and sound effects synchronized with the action on the screen.citation needed The resulting sound films were initially distinguished from the usual silent moving pictures or movies by calling them talking pictures or talkies.citation needed The revolution they wrought was swift. By 1930, silent film was practically extinct in the US and already being referred to as the old medium.citation needed

Preview Main article: Test screening A preview performance refers to a showing of a film to a select audience, usually for the purposes of corporate promotions, before the public film premiere itself. Previews are sometimes used to judge audience reaction, which if unexpectedly negative, may result in recutting or even refilming certain sections based on the audience response. One example of a film that was changed after a negative response from the test screening is 1982s First Blood. After the test audience responded very negatively to the death of protagonist John Rambo, a Vietnam veteran, at the end of the film, the company wrote and re-shot a new ending in which the character survives.11

Two weeks later, movie theaters in Los Angeles began reopening with 25% capacity.
